DANCE WITH JESUS™: A METAPHOR FOR FINDING JOY

Dance With Jesus: A Metaphor for Finding Joy is a connection between a woman's desire to restore joy in life and the spiritual awakening required to make it happen. Susan speaks from her personal experience of losing joy, including the loss of her sister to suicide, her youngest son to drugs and alcohol and other family members to cancer. In this talk, she helps audiences to:

- Replace doubt with the truth of God's love
- Reduce problems that trip you with promises that lift you
- Embrace words that heal instead of hurt
- Replace lies of less than with the certainty of more than
- Discover the joy of the Lord in the midst of your mess

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF YOU

So often people feel totally insignificant and purposeless, searching for significance in all the wrong places yet finding none. In The Significance of You, Susan reveals that God planned and purposed your significance, even when you feel unpurposed, or insignificant. She challenges the audience to:

- Seek God for their significance rather than searching insignificant things
- Recognize God planned and purposed them for His plans and purpose
- Look to God as the steady source of their significance instead of feeling insignificant and unsteady
- Operate with purposeful action rather than purposelessness
- Know they carry the significant message of the Savior and that the world is hungry to hear them

RAVE REVIEWS

"SUSAN MEAD IS THE REAL DEAL! She grabs the audience's attention immediately and doesn't let go until she steps off the stage. She has walked through the loss of one child, the faith-crisis of another, and been personally and painfully touched by suicide more than once. Yet Susan walks with joy - a supernatural joy that could only come from the heart of the Healer, Jesus Christ. Susan is a blessing on the radio and on stage, bringing a story that needs to be told and a radiance that needs to be seen and heard. I am so grateful that the Lord allowed our paths to intersect."

Rebecca Ashbrook Carrell, morning show co-host on 90.9 KCBI Dallas/Fort Worth

Susan B Mead speaks directly to your heart in a dynamic way imparting life back into areas you thought dead.

Her delicate words seep deep into your soul, binding all the wounds there. You come away revived and transformed into the person God created you to be. Know this - you will begin to dance with your Father from a totally different perspective.

Liz Morris, The Personality Doctor and Best-selling Author of Seekers

BIBLE BASICS: PRAYERS THAT TOUCH THE HEART OF GOD AND DO NOT RETURN VOID

Have you heard people say their prayers have not been answered and they wonder, "God, have You even heard me?" They prayed from their hearts like they were supposed to, yet things are not what they expected them to be. These people question what's happening and will God ever hear them - or answer them? Susan personally faced these questions and more. If similar questions arise for your attendees, then this presentation is scripted just for them. Susan will help your audience:

- Learn the power of praying scripture to (re)move mountains
- Recognize the ploys of the enemy that hinder prayers
- Implement a strategic scripture based prayer plan based on need
- Remember His ways are not our ways when we don't get our way
- Learn to trust God, whether He answers yes, no or not yet
